

Breaker strengthens executive team with appointment of Chief Operating Officer

Breaker Resources NL (ASX: BRB; Breaker or the Company) is pleased to announce the appointment of Sam Smith as Chief Operating Officer, effective 1 June 2022.

Mr Smith was most recently General Manager of Growth at Macmahon Holdings Limited where he was responsible for managing various teams of estimators, engineers and administrators to tender and plan multi-million dollar projects from start-up to steady-state operation.

Mr Smith holds a Mining Engineering Diploma (UNSW), a Master of Business Administration (ECU), and a Bachelor of Communications (ECU). He has 15 years' experience, primarily in Business Development in the mining services sector.

Breaker Managing Director Tom Sanders said Mr Smith would be a valuable addition to the Breaker team as it broadens its operational capability and embarks on the next phase of its strategy to become a significant WA gold producer.

"Sam will co-ordinate ongoing open pit and underground mining studies at the Company's flagship 1.7Moz Lake Roe Gold Project in WA's Eastern Goldfields region, and will strengthen the executive team in the key areas of business development and contractual negotiation," Mr Sanders said.

Authorised by the Board of Directors,

Tom Sanders
Managing Director
